

78A-5-101 State District Court Administrative System.

- (1) The district court is a trial court of general jurisdiction.
- (2) There is established a State District Court Administrative System. The Judicial Council shall administer the operation of the system.
- (3) In this chapter, "court system" means the State District Court Administrative System.
- (4) A district court shall be located in the county seat of each county.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session